SHELTER (Tulsa)

NOTE: "Shelter Records" was founded by managing partners Leon Russell and Denny Cordell in 1969 and was initially headquartered in Los Angeles. In 1972, Shelter Records was moved to Tulsa to an abandoned church at 3rd Street and Trenton Avenue that became known as "The Church Studio." In 1976, Russell and Cordell had a "falling-out." Cordell ended up with Shelter Records, The Church Studio was closed, and Russell left Tulsa to establish his own label, "Paradise Records," with his (then) wife, Mary (McCreary) Russell. This discography is by no means complete; it has been created record-by-record over a five-year period. Any corrections or additions are welcomed; please contact
